

PAC FSD ONLINE

An investigation into the Flexible Skills Development (FSD) through new tools and pedagogies in the Pacific. We will journey into the exciting world of e-learning, digital literacies, and online tools and experiences in flexible skills. This fully online course will equip you with innovative ideas to introduce blended learning technologies to support strategies into the formal and informal skills development.

FROM 9th May
TILL
3rd July

FREE ONLINE
COURSE

Topics:

1. Introduction and Orientation Module
2. Flexible and Skills Development
3. Talking Strategy
4. ICT in Education - Understanding Open Educational Resources (OER)
5. Recognition for Teachers and Institutions (for Teachers)
6. Change Management (for Managers)
7. Plenary - Final thoughts

All participants will receive a Certificate and a Commonwealth of Learning Badge

SUPPORTED BY:

COMMONWEALTH of LEARNING

USP
THE UNIVERSITY OF THE
SOUTH PACIFIC

REGISTER NOW

<https://goo.gl/1ZFcAu>

For more information contact:

COURSE ADMINISTRATION

Matai Tagicaki
Project Officer, Pacfold
email: tagicaki_m@usp.ac.fj

COURSE LEARNING AND TEACHING

Associate Profesor Bibhya Sharma
Faculty of Technology, Science and Environment.
The University of the South Pacific
email: bibhya.sharma@usp.ac.fj