

HARRY THE FISH

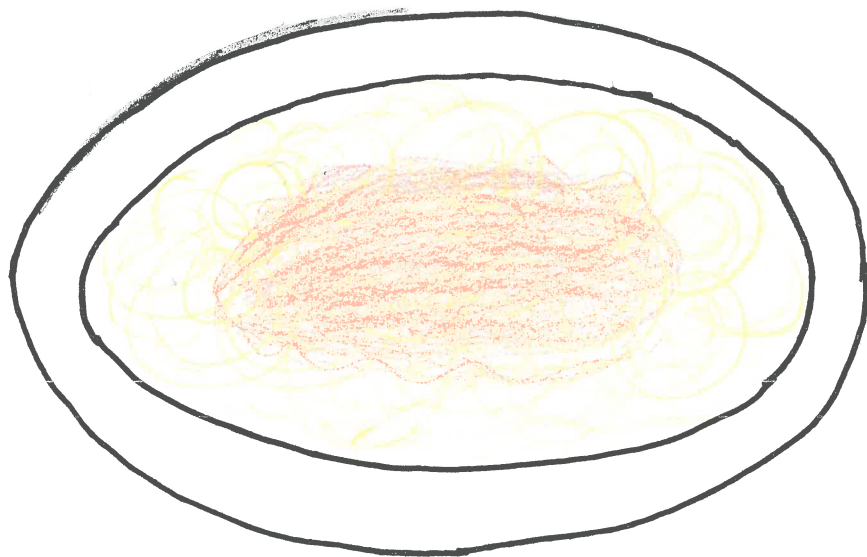

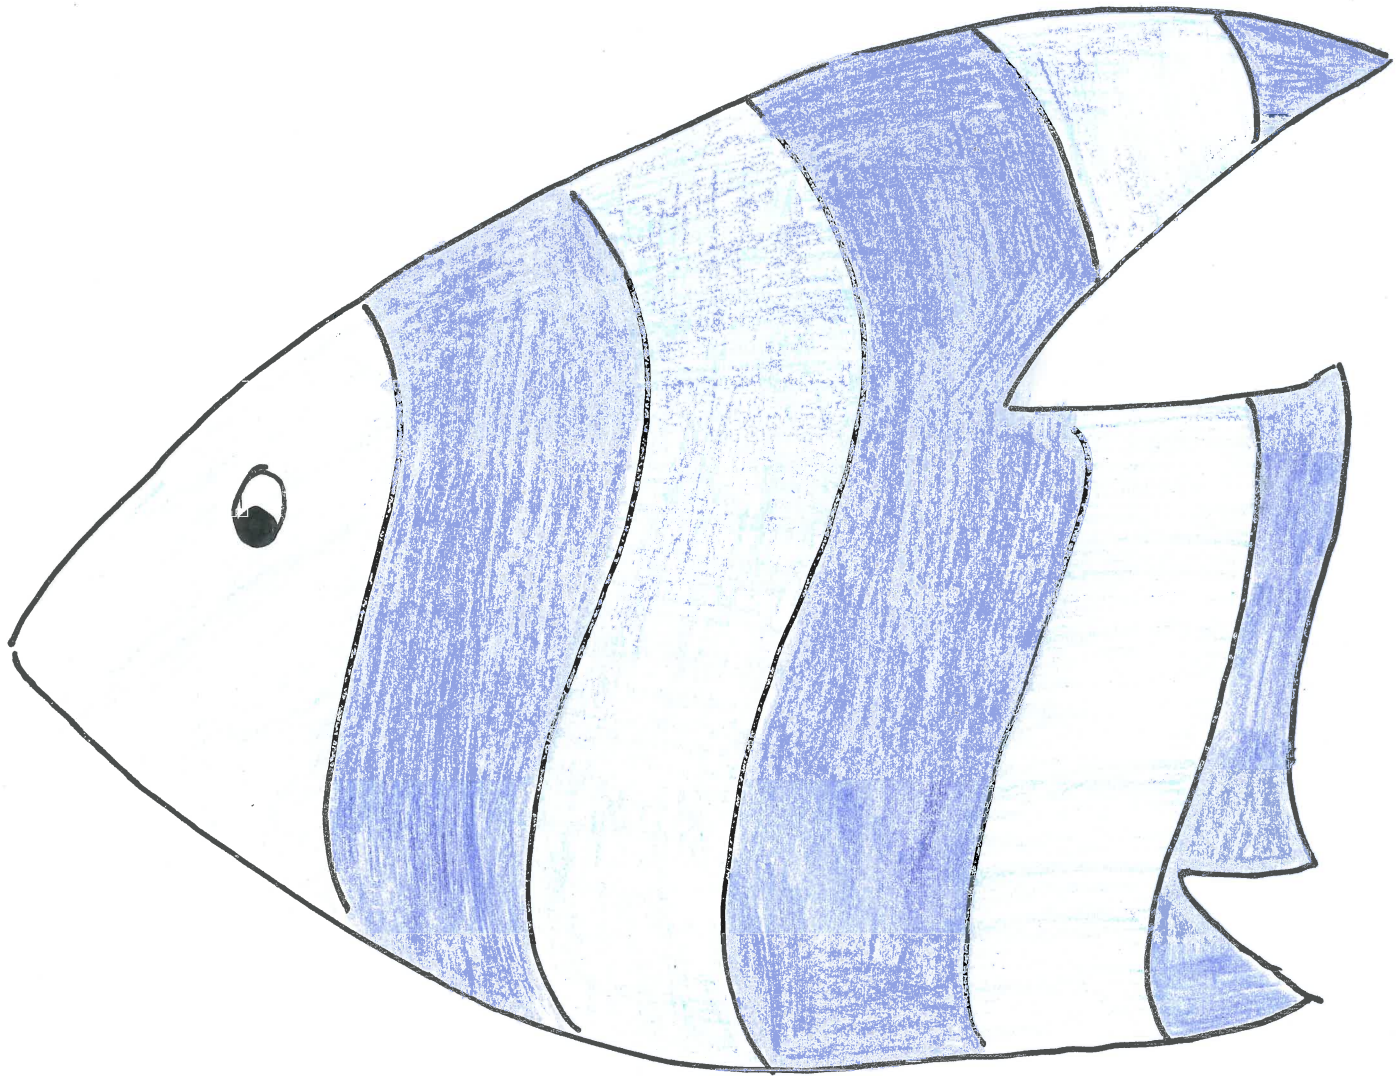

by Mia Zervos

Harry is a little fish
he is pretty and purplish.

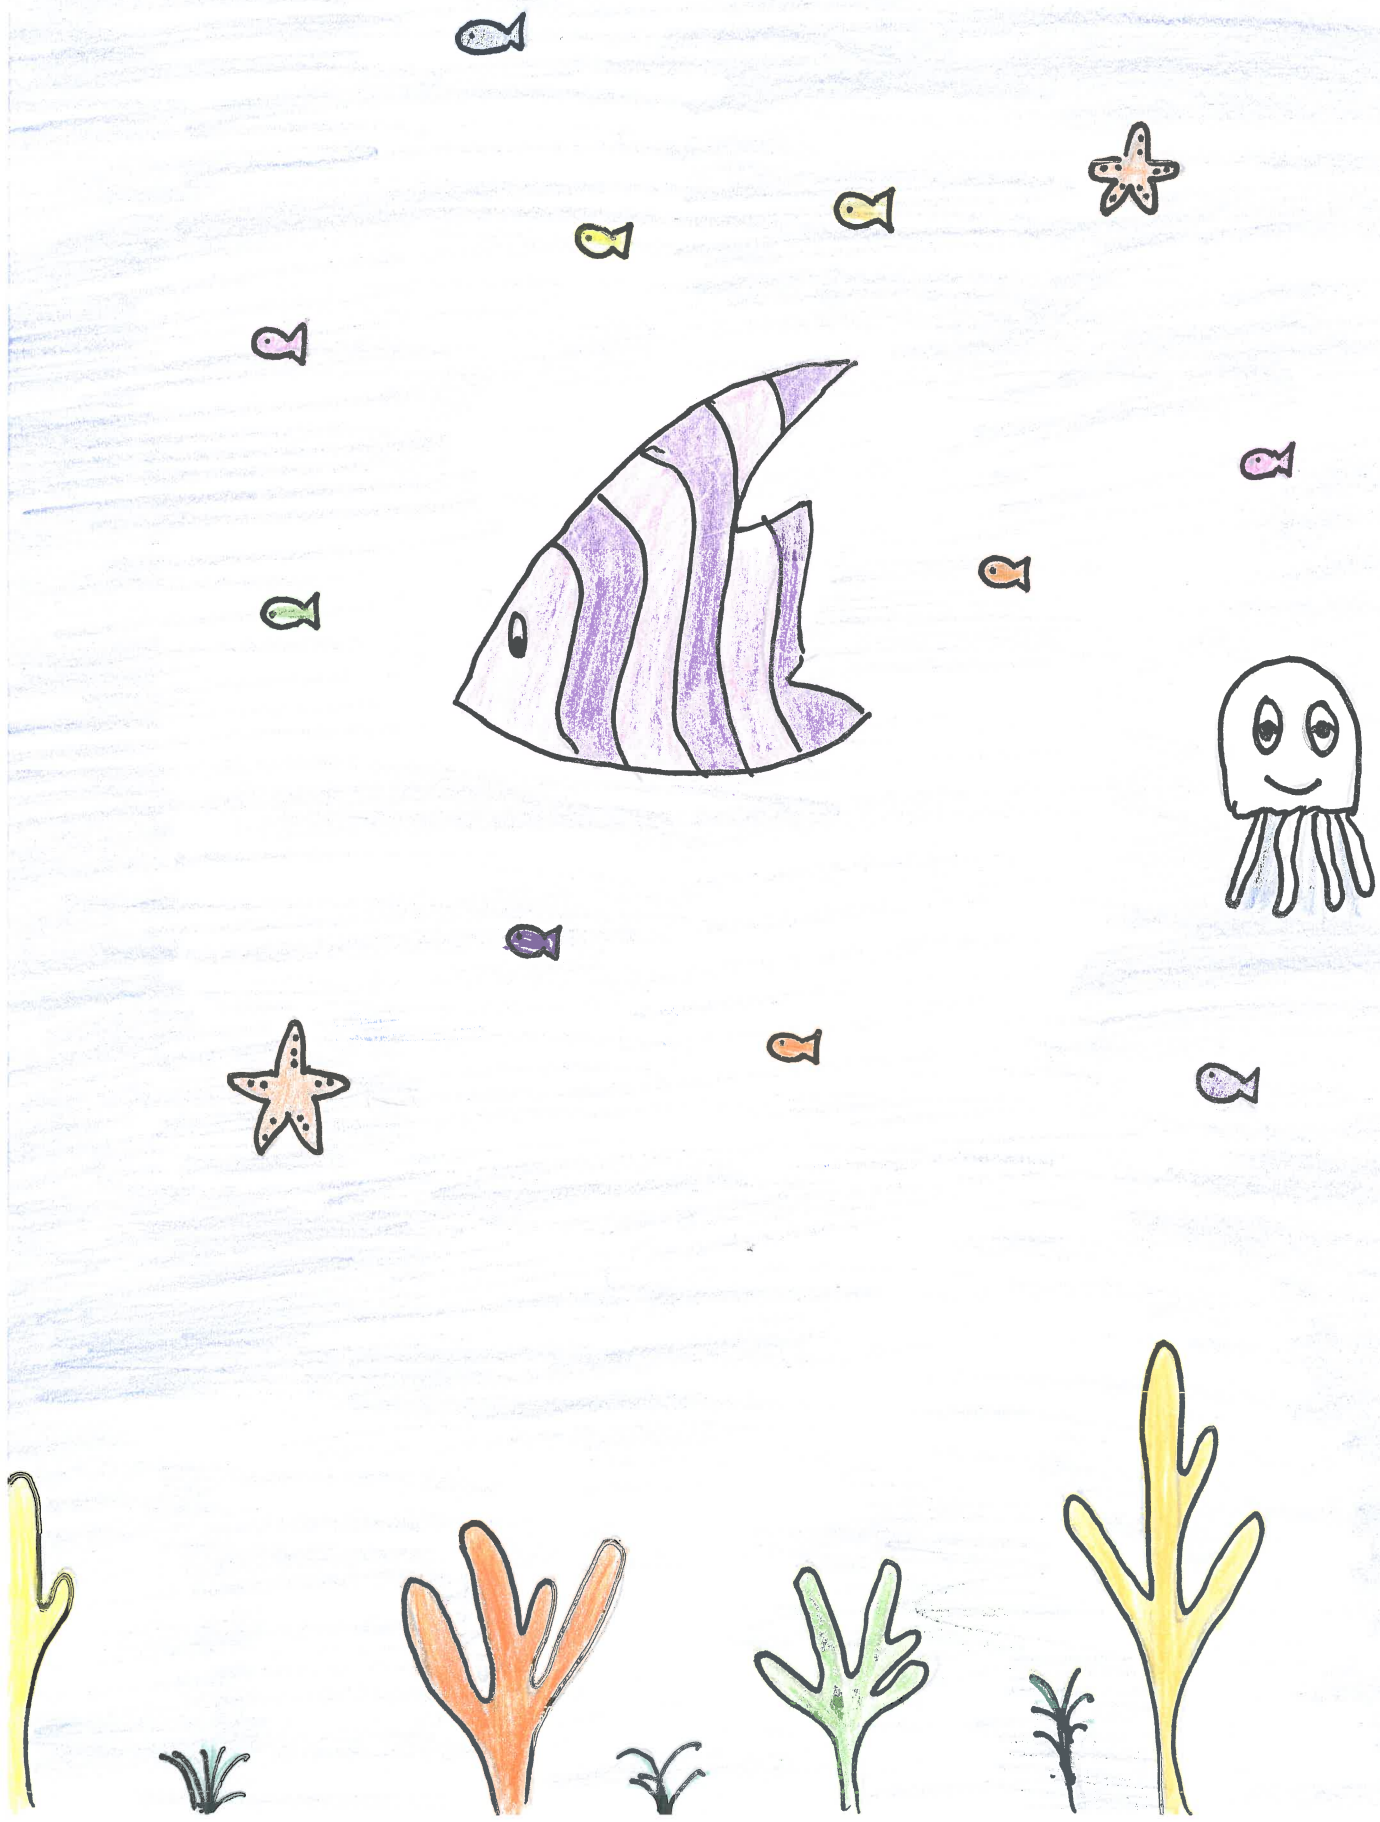

His mom, Anna, is also a fish

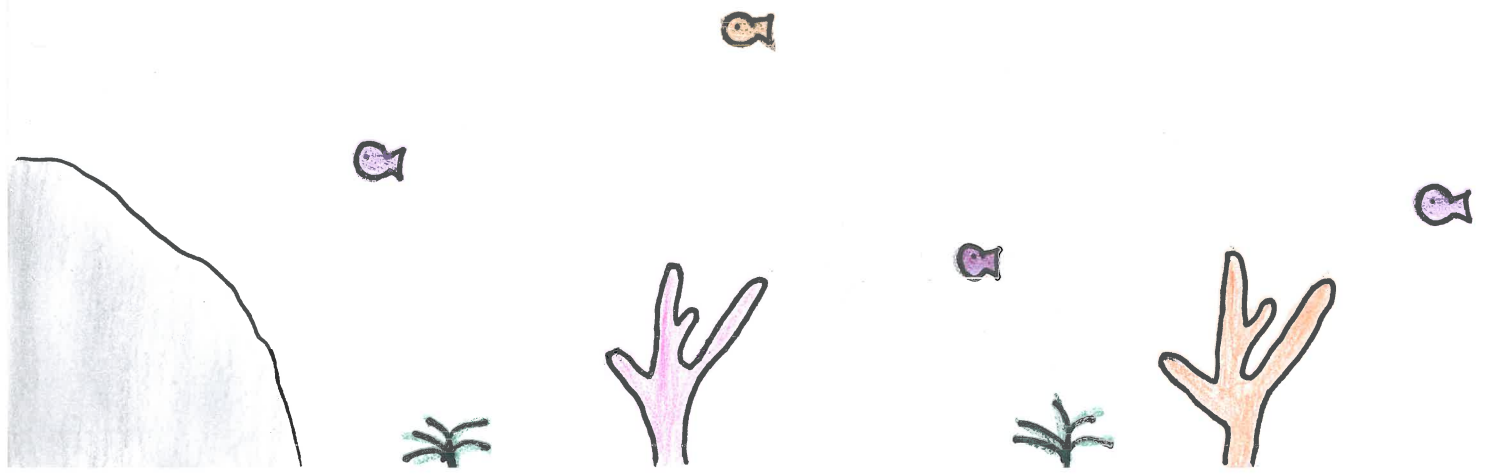

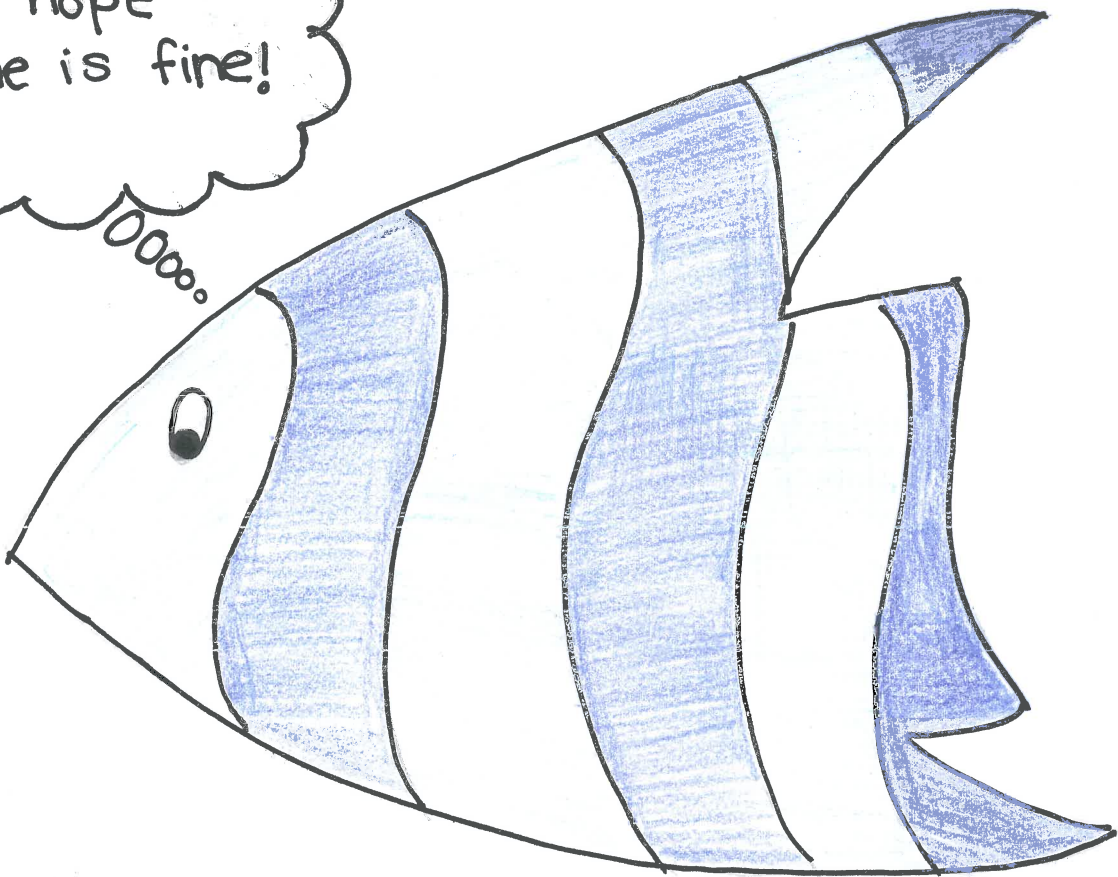

she's famous for her pasta dish.

He loves to swim around in the sea,
until 6pm, when it's time for tea.

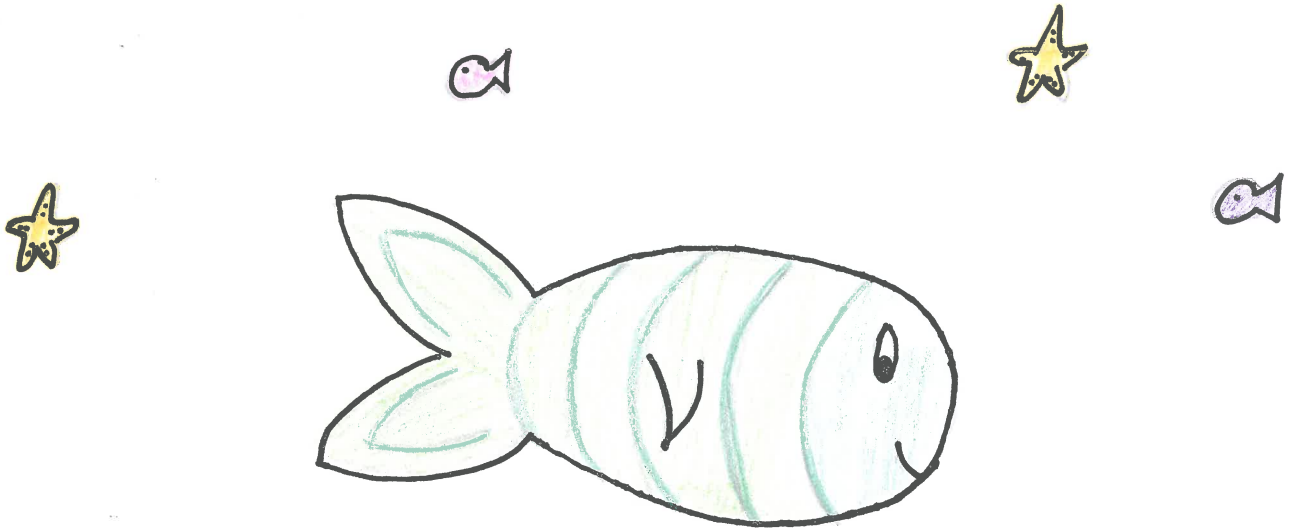

But one day he wasn't there on time
so his mom thought:

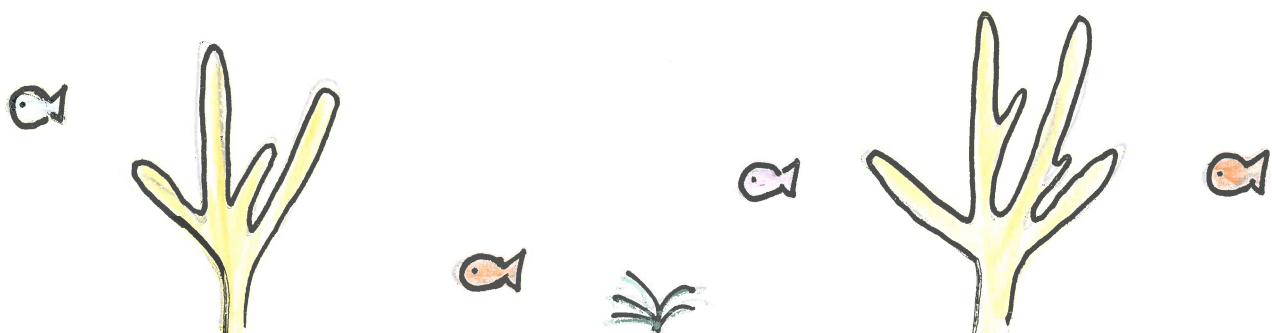

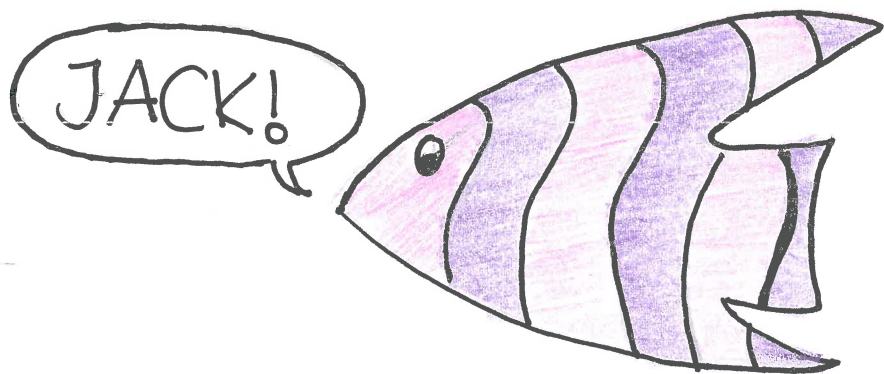

I hope
he is fine!

He was lost and didn't find
the way back

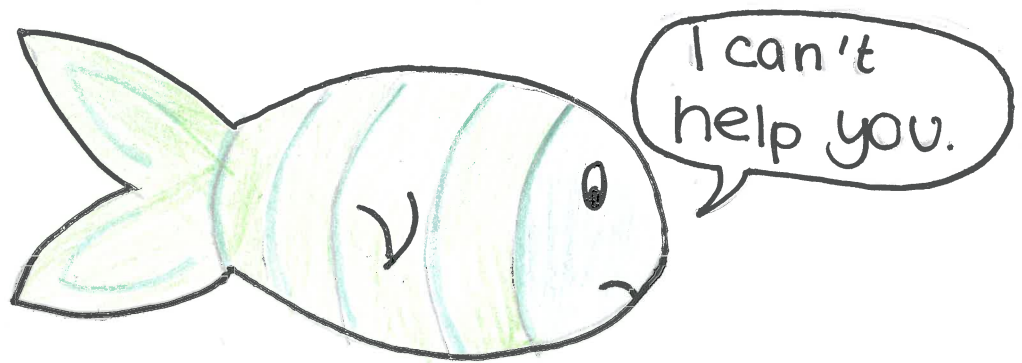

luckily he saw his best friend

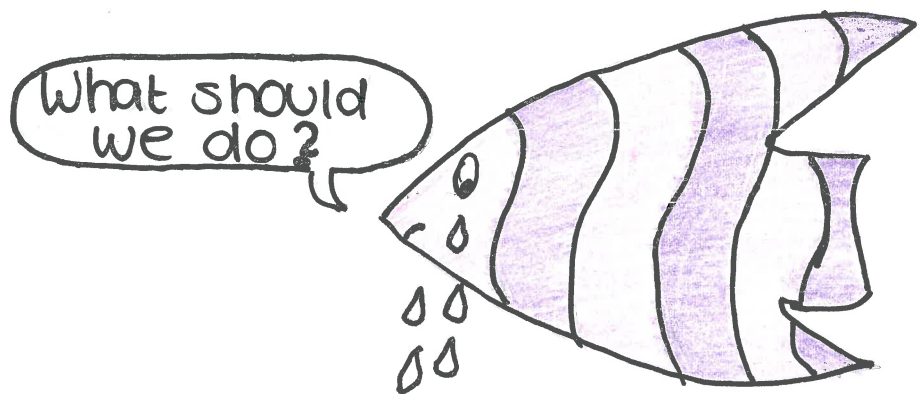

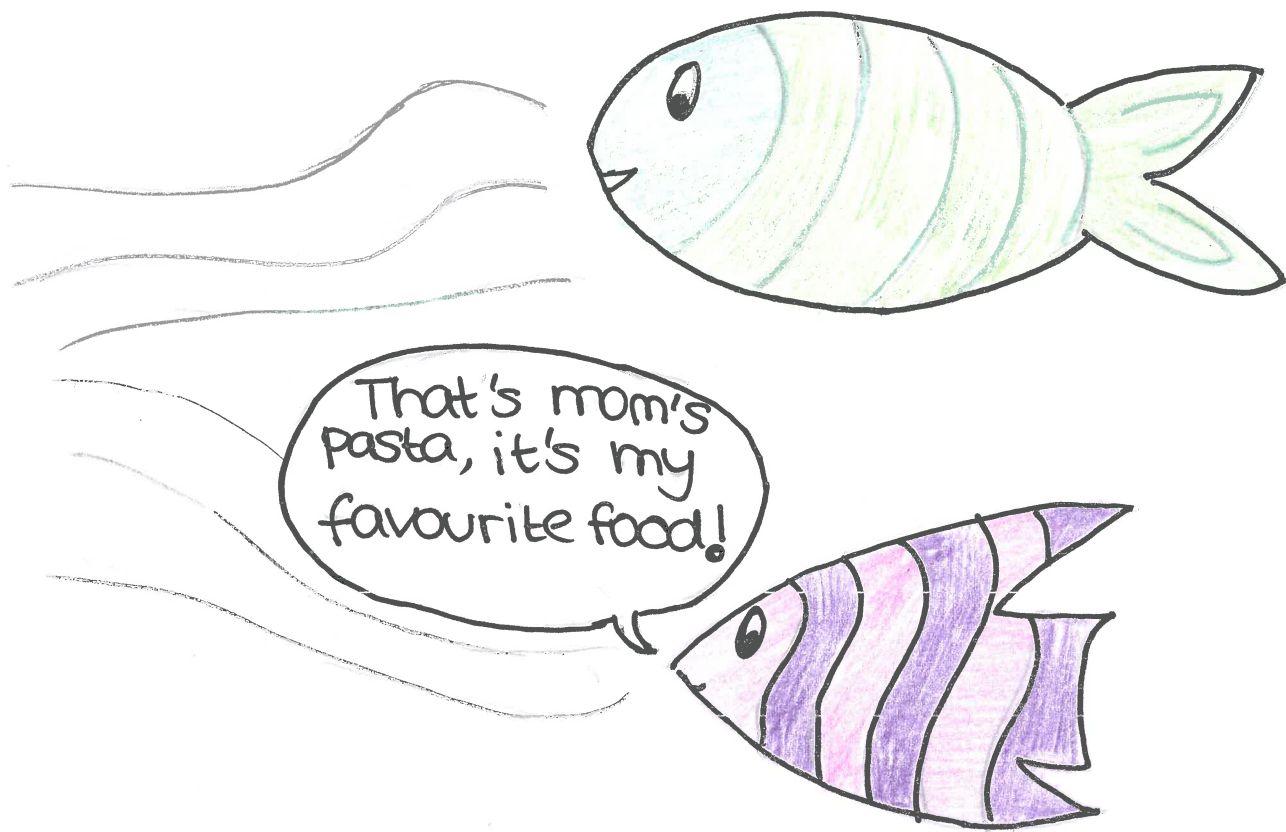

His friend Jack said

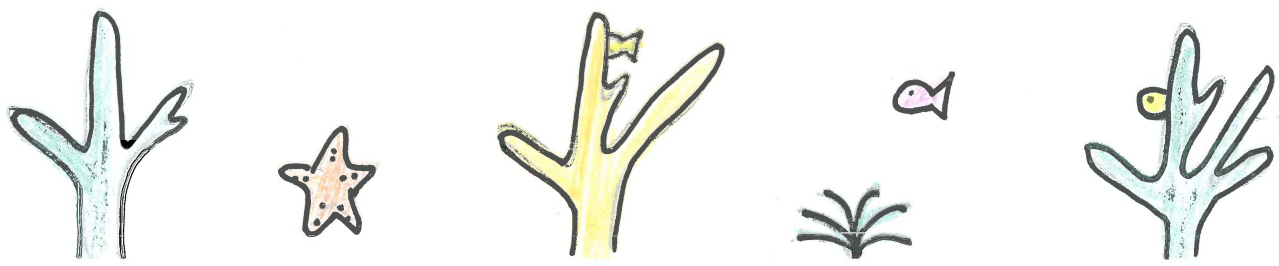

Harry started crying

But suddenly there was a smell,
it was good!

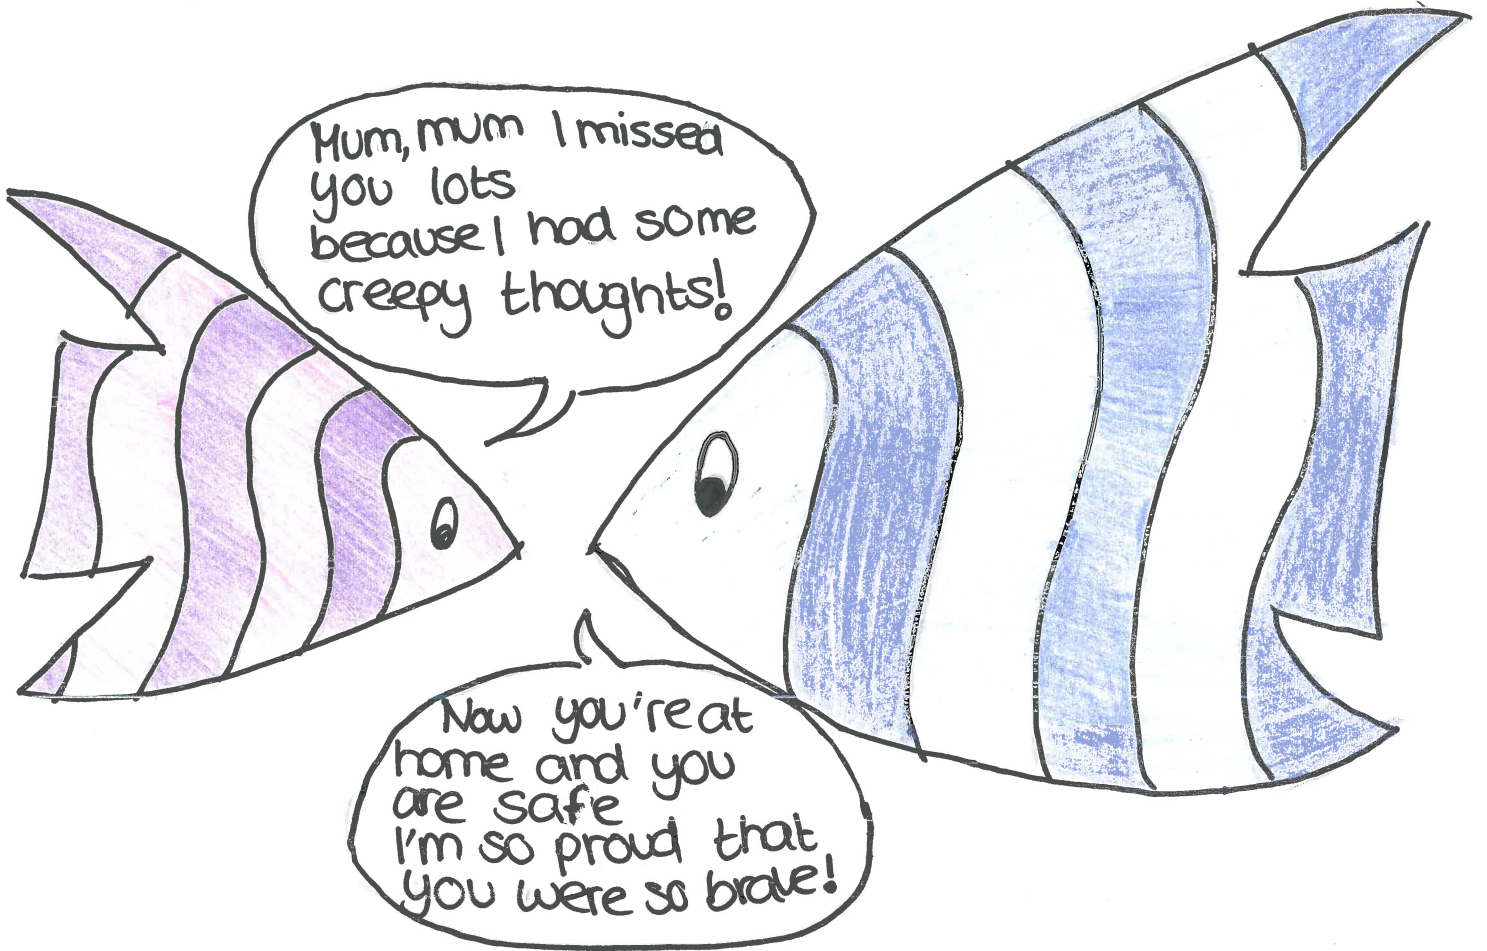

They followed and followed the smell
this saved Harry's awful day!

They followed and followed and followed
the smell,

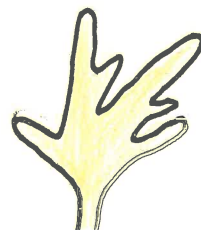

finally at home. Now he's feeling well!

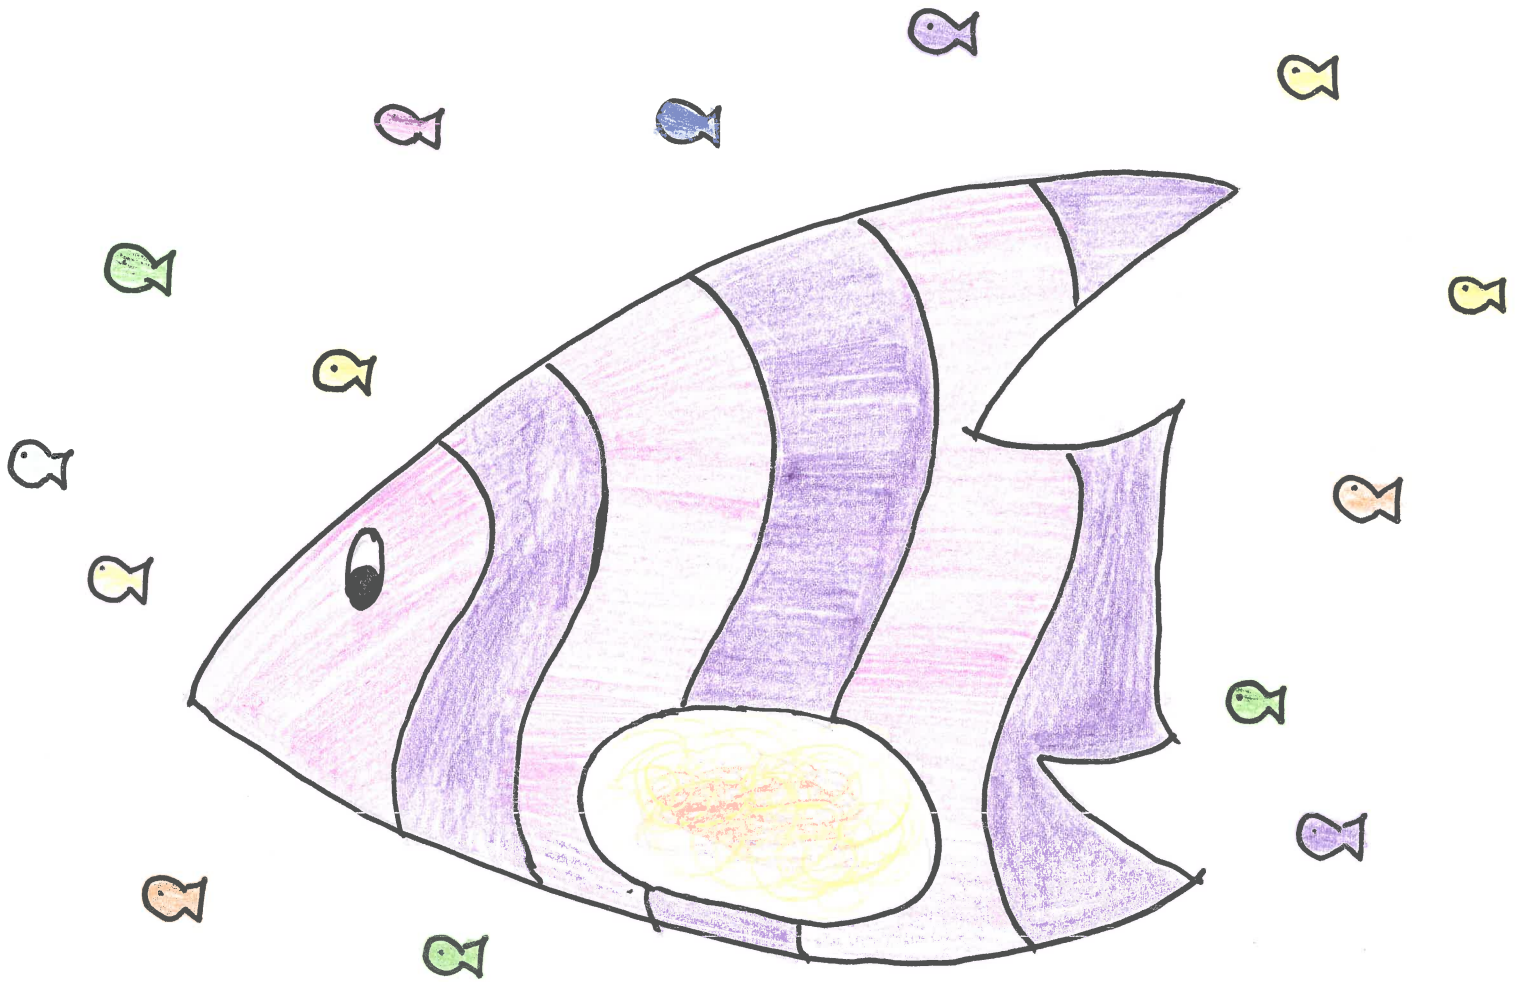

Mum, mum I missed you lots because I had some creepy thoughts!

Now you're at home and you are safe I'm so proud that you were so brave!

Now the pasta is all in his belly

this is how food saved the life of

HARRY!
