

Room 11 enjoyed Matariki night last week, here are some of us making glow-in-the-dark bubbles! Thanks to James from the Ashburton Event Centre for sourcing the black lights for us!

We have also been observing chemical changes as part of our Science. Last week we made edible worms—they were lots of fun and very tasty!

