BOOK CHARACTER DRESS-UP DAY

- Dressing up as a book character is a fun and interactive activity in Book Week.
- The whole school will take part
- It will be on Friday 16th June
- We are asking for a gold coin donation. With this money, we will buy children's books and stationery for the Women's Refuge houses in Dunedin.
- You can win a prize! One person from each year level will be judged 'Best Dressed' on the day.

BUT WHAT WILL I WEAR?

Book character dress-up day should not cost your families a lot of money. There are many ways of being creative with the clothing or dress-ups you already have.

Here are some tips and ideas to get your creative juices flowing.

NATIONAL DRESS

There are many books that discuss our countries of origin. Why not dress up in your national dress?

ANIMAL DRESS UP

There are plenty of books with animals in them. So how about wearing an animal onesie?

HARRY POTTER CHARACTER

Nearly everyone has read the books or seen the movies. Can you dress up as Hermione, Ron or Harry Potter?

PIRATE, WITCH OR WIZARD

There are plenty of books with a pirate, witch or wizard book character. How about dressing up as one of those.

SUPERHEROES AND FAIRYTALE CHARACTERS

Superheroes are always fun to dress up as and there are many fairytale characters to choose from.

SPORTS STARS

There are plenty of books about our sporting heroes. This is your chance to dress as one of them!

YOUR HEROES IN REAL LIFE

Perhaps you love to read non-fiction stories about real people and the amazing things they have done.

Dressing up as one of your heroes would be great!

MOVIE CHARACTERS

Many of your favourite movies began as books. Can you think of a movie character that started out as a book character?
