

Room 10

Room 10 has been doing some awesome science experiments this term! We have been learning about liquids and solids. We have looked at how different items react and have learnt about density and how sometimes two liquids, such as, oil and water don't combine!

