APPENDIX # 1

NATIONAL TEAM COACHES RESPONSIBILITIES

National Team Coaches are required to submit to the National Coaching Coordinator the content of their training programs. A template will be provided by the NCC. The NCC will create and evolve a connection between the age-group teams, and the pinnacle of our teams, the Ice Blacks. The goal of this is to have each level of national team players, being prepared towards their ultimate step into the Ice Blacks should they get the opportunity. The individual flair and talents of NT age-group coaches need not be limited by this arrangement.

The Ice Blacks coaching staff will have a direct responsibility to the NCC and the other age-group coaches, to “set the path” required. This pathway may include improvement of certain basic skills, offensive options, defensive systems, breakouts, fore-checks and regroupings. It may also include off-ice fitness and strength improvement expectations, personal habit and behavioral expectations and development of leadership qualities.

To achieve this, all National Team Coaches and their staff, will produce a written plan of what they will be doing with their team for the NCC. As stated above, a template will be provided by the NCC to help achieve this.

The plan will include:

- A Year Plan showing training dates and venues
- a plan of their anticipated on-ice training program (including timeline) including general and specific objectives
- team fitness expectations and how this will be achieved
- individual fitness expectations
- dry-land and off-ice team activities
- theory topics and delivery program
- team goals and expectations
- squad selection and reduction dates
- final team selection date
- budget plan to be completed by Team Manager
