LOOKING FOR HOST FAMILIES

International students choose to study at Cashmere for many different reasons, some students prefer long term study with an academic approach. While some students prefer short term and just want to experience NZ culture, our great outdoors and improve their English. The international team is in need of host-families in our area.

Are you interested in:

- experiencing a new culture in your own home
- providing a safe and comfortable home environment
- caring for a student as you would your own family
- forming new friendships that last a lifetime and span the globe
- joining a team of quality host families
- our student is required to have their own bedroom

Our friendly and professional international team are here to care and support you through this journey. Our host-families are paid $315 per week (2024) for caring for our students.
