It is with great pleasure that the NZIHF would like to announce Adam Blanchette current Head coach of the SkyCity Stampede, has been named as the senior men's National team assistant coach. With strong performances in the NZIHL over several years as both a player and coach, he will team up with Anatoly Khorozov to form a formidable team. We wish Adam all the very best in his new role, as he has the full support of the NZIHF and team management.
