

Name	$ of prize:	Award from	Citation	Board title
Gabriella d'Auvergne	Potted Tree Sapling + $60	Canterbury Botanical Society	For best investigation into native plants or vegetation	Seed Distribution
Breana McIntock and Lucy Mullen Middleton	Prize: $200	The Royal Society of New Zealand Canterbury Branch	For excellence in experimental design, approach and interpretation.	Sound Surfaces
	Senior $120	Graduate Women Canterbury (GWC)	Best exhibits by a female student, aligning with the values of Graduate Women Canterbury
Zoe d'Auvergne	Prize: 2nd Prize $30	Sociological Association of Aotearoa New Zealand (SAANZ)	For the project that best represents either the use of sociological methods of inquiry, consideration of ethical issues, and/or consideration of practical or policy-oriented implications arising for individuals, communities and society.	Ukraine Refugee compound briquette press
	Prize: $200	Year 9 Technology	First Prize
	Commended Prize: $100	Callaghan Innovation	For the most innovative exhibits showing commercial potential
Sophia Turnbull	Prize: $50	Mansfield Health Practice	Health Aspect of a project	Peanut Butter vs Sunblock - Is sunblock telling the truth?
Paige Cherry	Prize: $100	School of Earth and Environment, University of Canterbury	Best display showing links between people and their environment. Geography focuses on the relationships between people, their places and their environments, and the ways in which these can be made more sustainable for the future.	A Germ's Journey
Luke Jansen	Prize: $100	Year 9 Science Judge	Third Prize	Fruit NRG
Total:	$960			