

Student Qualities – The Things That Make Our Leaders Role Models

In order to become a leader, students will be displaying these qualities

Respect	Uses Manners	Wear correct uniform at all times	Follows instructions of adults who are in our school	Looks after our school environment by picking up rubbish	When speaking with others they use appropriate language and speak in a nice way	Ask when needing to use things that belong to other people	Respects what other people have to say, or think
Honesty	Can be trusted	Is accountable for their actions when they do something wrong, own up	Will let an adult know if they see something naughty, even if it involves their friends	Is honest when dealing with other people	Will do the right thing even when no one is looking	Reliable
Excellence	Is well organised	Completes tasks and jobs in a timely manner	Is able to mediate and problem solve	Sets noble and realistic goals	Is able to take charge of self	Gives their best in whatever they do
Responsibility	Resilient Doesn't give up easily or back down from difficult situations	Deals with frustration and anger appropriately	Uses time well and gets things done in an orderly and efficient way	Takes ownership of actions and words	Not easily swayed or led by peers	Do what is expected when no one is watching you	Is consistent, committed and reliable
Leadership	Is a role model of what the school virtues are	Leads by example	Is able to speak in front of others, e.g. assemblies, welcoming guests	Stands tall and proud	Has pride in Tainui Full Primary School	Communicates with others in a respectful manner, is not bossy	Encourages and supports students
Co-Operation	Helpful to teachers and adults	Helpful to others (both friends, peers, and people outside class)	Works well as part of a team or group.	Gets on with others (not argumentative)	Impartial/fair – not just helping friends	Is willing to follow the rules to keep everyone safe and happy	Allows others to have ideas and opinions
Make a Difference	Be involved in what is happening around the school	Determined to see improvement or change for the better	Show community spirit; be prepared to help with things that make Tainui School a fun place to be.	Be prepared to give up some time to help others, e.g. Juniors, help with playground duty

Preparing for lifelong success – by inspiring every child to imagine, create, learn and believe