National Coaching Strategy: 2016 New Zealand Ice Hockey Federation

Purpose:

To increase numbers in grassroots ice hockey in New Zealand by means of awareness, elite coaching and promotion of fun, safe and respectful activity. This strategy focuses on increasing Learn To Play / Youth ice hockey playing numbers and the growth and certification of coaches at all levels in New Zealand. Also incorporated into this plan is Youth Olympic Games (YOG) skills preparation for players and coaches, as well as practical coaching experience at the U10, U14, U17, U20 and Women's age grade.

Plan:

To teach and train and certify coaches at the Learn to Play, Level 1 and Level 2 IIHF Certification Categories.

Learn to Play

Each session will be approx. 4 hours in duration. Coaches just need to attend one session the region of their choice. Cost is $125. Instructors: Jonathan Albright & Andreas Kaiser.

- Learn to Play, Christchurch: 26 November 2016.
- Learn to Play, Auckland: TBA.

Level 3

To be eligible for this course: Participants must hold a Level 2 certification for at least 12 months, and provide 3 training plans and coaching resume from the 2015/16 season.

Level 3 are full day courses. Out of town coaches will be flown to the venue and flights & accommodation will be covered with the registration fees. Cost is $250. Instructor: Jonathan Albright & Andreas Kaiser

- Offered in 2016: Practical Assessment (Goaltending). 26-27 November 2016, Christchurch.

Mentorship Programme:

Student coaches will be paired with a mentor coach for the New Zealand winter hockey season. The mentors will supervise the student coaches and provide pedagogical support when needed. The student coach will submit training plans throughout the season, update on coaching progress and can use the mentor for all coaching-related support.

Coaches are restricted to one level per year. In doing so, they are to use the knowledge gained from the course and apply it for 1 NZIHF season. - Only one level may be attained in one NZIHF calendar season.

NZIHF Goals:

- Certify all coaches in the NZIHF.
- Increase Youth and Learn To Play numbers.
- Increase the national coaching pool.
- Recruit new coaches through new certification / re-certification programmes and provide incentives to undertake these courses.
- Provide immediate structured and supervised coaching to the U10, U14, U17 and U20 Leagues, as well as NZIHL and NZWIHL.

Cost:

- $250NZD per course, per year for Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3.
- $125NZD per course, per year for Learn To Play.
- Amount is payable to the New Zealand Ice Hockey Federation.
- Regions are to gather prospective coaches, have them complete and submit the attached registration form, and the NZIHF will invoice each region.
- Coaches can withdraw with a full refund, six (6) weeks prior to the first course commencement.

Liability (Terms & Conditions):

- Pricing and transactions are quoted in NZ Dollars and are inclusive of GST.
- The New Zealand Ice Hockey Federation has a strict policy of "No Pay, No Play". Federation members who have not paid the amount due, shall be stopped from participating in training sessions and/or classroom sessions.
- All members agree to pay Ice fees and costs as detailed by the New Zealand Ice Hockey Federation. Failure to pay said fees may result in the New Zealand Ice Hockey Federation taking action to recover said fees. The debtor will upon demand pay to the New Zealand Ice Hockey Federation Inc all costs, charges and expenses (including but not limited to collection commissions and legal costs) incurred by the New Zealand Ice Hockey Federation Inc. in collecting or taking legal action to collect any amount owed by the debtor.
