New Zealand Wetlands film comes to Amberley, June 16

“Rohe Kōreporepo: The Swamp The Sacred Place”

Amberley School Hall, 7 pm, Thursday June 16

followed by discussion with wetlands specialists including

Greg Byrnes of Tūhaitara Coastal Park Trust

(Te Kōhaka o Tūhaitara)

In the last 150 years, 90% of Aotearoa's swamps and wetlands have been destroyed in the name of development. Wetlands support rich ecosystems, provide natural flood control and are significant carbon sinks. They have always been regarded as sacred places and mahinga kai food gathering places by Māori tangata whenua.

This documentary, by acclaimed Christchurch filmmaker Kathleen Gallagher, celebrates the efforts of 60 community kaitiaki/guardians around the country to restore and enhance those that remain today, and explains why they are vital for a healthy and balanced future on Papatuanuku/Earth.

Entry: Adults $10, children free. Mask-wearing encouraged

Venue: Amberley School Douglas Rd entrance. The hall is across the courtyard to the right of the office.

Event organiser: Hurunui Biodiversity Trust

Community Meeting - Hurunui Biodiversity Action

Please accept our invitation to a community meeting. This is for learning about and gaining your input into a new project initiated by the Hurunui Biodiversity Trust, in association with the Hurunui District Landcare Group.

With your help we aim to create a resource to help landowners and community groups better manage and protect biodiversity across Hurunui.

This work will help answer questions like:

- What native biodiversity is likely to be on my land?
- What can I do to look after and improve it?

Answering these questions will lay the groundwork for:

- More informed and efficient actions to protect and enhance biodiversity.
- Communities empowered with knowledge, thinking actively about what they want for native biodiversity and how to get there.

This meeting is relevant to everyone with a long-term interest in a healthy and functioning natural environment, especially landowners, managers, and community groups interested in native biodiversity.

Speakers: Dave Nicholls, Jamie McFadden, James Lambie, Mike Bennett.

Waipara Memorial Hall (Cnr Johnstone Street and Ferguson Avenue)

7:00 pm Wednesday 29th June (Mask-wearing encouraged)

CUTTING for a CAUSE

In Loving Memory of two very special ladies whom I had the pleasure of working with for many years

Penny & Lee

On
Thursday 7th July 2022
1.40pm

@ Amuri Area School

I will be CUTTING off over 40 cm of my hair.

Throughout my hair growing journey I have thought more and more about Penny and Lee and decided to make a bigger deal of having my hair cut.

Not just sending my hair away to help make a wig but turning it into a fundraiser.

Any support you can give in memory of these special ladies is greatly appreciated, with all funds raised going directly to Leukaemia and Blood Cancer New Zealand.

Donations will be gratefully accepted on the day!

Please donate on the link below.
