

Welcome to November Kidz Korna

It hardly seems possible that it will soon be the end of 2021. Yesterday I saw Christmas pies in the cake shop.

What have you all been doing over the last few weeks of the latest Covid lockdown? Some of us have more restrictions than others and for those who are still not able to go to school it is much harder.

The folk at Lindisfarne in Invercargill were asked to send their minister news of how they had been spending the time. Cyraul sent a photo of him achieving a back flip on his trampoline. Trampolining is a great way of keeping fit as well as having fun.

It is important that we keep busy and find things we can do that are fun.

It would be good to hear how you are doing church when you can't meet. At my church we are having Zoom services and the children are taking part reading the lessons. On Samoan White Sunday they sang, danced and Zoe read a short story she had written.

Cyraul flips out on his trampoline.

Jesus' Day Off

Author: Nicholas Allan

Publisher: Penguin NZ

Nicholas Allan has produced another delightful picture book about Jesus.

It is hard work performing miracles, telling stories and being the Saviour of the world. Jesus is tired. The doctor tell him to take some time off and he agrees. I recommend that you read this amusing book to find out how he enjoys the break and spends the time.
