Tēnā koe,

Thank you for your interest in the Toss the Boss event – the major annual fundraising event for Southern Youth Development (formerly the Malcam Charitable Trust).

The event is pretty simple.

- You sign up to be a participant of the event.
- We set you up with a givealittle page for you to fundraise. We recommend $1000 as the target.
- You get your business, friends and family behind the cause to donate.
- On the day, you abseil 35 meters from the upper service gantry in the Speights Stand at Forsyth Barr Stadium to the pitch below.
- Your supporters can watch you abseil. There is plenty of opportunities for photos and videos for your own posterity of the event.

The event is ably run by Dunedin Climbing. No experience is needed in abseiling as the event is catered to all levels of expertise. You are in safe hands at all times during the event.

You do not need to be a boss, or be nominated to be tossed. You can volunteer yourself and get others involved. All participants will need their own givealittle page and target for fundraising.

This year, the event is on Friday 12 May between 7.30am and 11am. All participants must be present at 7.30am for the safety briefing. Given we will be inside, there will be no weather cancellation.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions. You can reach our team by calling 03 477 4175. If you have any specific questions, get in touch with our event manager, Leisa de Klerk, at 021 548 376 or leisa@syd.org.nz.

Thank you for your interest. We look forward to your participation!
