

Ngāi Tahu Internship

Do you want to get a head start?
Do you want to get a taste of the real world?

Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Tahu is looking for two hard working, committed and passionate rangatahi to come and join us in an exciting and varied internship commencing in January 2019.

The Ngāi Tahu Internship is a two-year paid internship at the Ngāi Tahu offices in Christchurch, allowing interns to get an inside look into the diverse roles available across Te Rūnanga Group. Interns will finish the internship with an understanding of potential future pathways, real-world experience and a strengthened sense of their Ngāi Tahutanga.

Who should apply?

- recent school leavers or those wanting to explore new career options
- those who have a passion to work for their iwi
- those who show energy and commitment, and have a desire to learn!

What we can offer you in return:

- real life experience working in a corporate environment
- tailored professional development plans
- cultural development opportunities
- mentoring and pastoral care
- targeted internal opportunities
- the opportunity to work in a vibrant, passionate and enthusiastic office full of great people!

"I began my internship in 2015 after moving up from Invercargill. I had almost no whānau here in Christchurch but everyone at TRoNT was so supportive and quickly became my family away from home. The networking opportunities this internship has given me have been invaluable. Meeting new people, especially people that are passionate about Ngāi Tahu has been awesome. Having this exposure so early on in my career provides such valuable learning and is an experience that not many people my age have had. My personal development has also been immense and I feel blessed to have had such an awesome job!"

- Sean Bragg, Ngāi Tahu intern 2015
