

And we stayed home and we sat and played and ran as time ticked by. Sometimes we read and sometimes we dread as a loved one's life passes you by. The air got cleaner family's got closer school got quieter and we stayed home. Why for security for our health because we were scared,paranoid of what was out there so we stayed home.

Reef Chaffey