Eddies spooky story

It's dec 9th and there's something bone chilling fighting about this abandoned house in the middle of a huge Rainforest. Although Conner and Jacobs were nervous they gained enough courage to step foot in the hunted beast. Conner nervously scans the room and fixed his eyes on a shelf with a bunch of old photos of little kids,the photos looked so old it looked like they were taken in the late 1800s.The duo goes up to the second floor and something disturbing comes to jacobs ears.Screams,moaning Jacob asked Conner if he heard it and Conner shakes his head firmly. Jacob lost his mind when he heard voices echoing of little kids whispering "Leave or else".Jacob was frozen in fear he couldn't move. He was like a stone.Conner was questioning why Jacob was so shocked. He asked there was no reply. SUDDENLY Conner sees a shadowy figure glooming at them,the figure has long black curly hair covering it and a ripped up dress.It was lurking at them from behind an old oak wooden closet. Conner nervously walked over to the closet and opened it.He was shocked what was in the closet...DEAD BODYYS. They both scream in horror out of the building.

They sprint out of the house and into the Rainforest.Conner wonders for a minute are we lost??They glanced over their shoulder, the house was gone,vanished,disappeared out of thin air.The house gone but what they did find was a note it said "60 degrees north 40 degrees west.Luckily they had a coupass with them that their grandma gave to them when they were little kids as a birthday present.they counted down the steps while looking at the dark green compass.They finally made it it to the destination what they saw was so surprising their hearts were exhilarating about what they saw.What was in front of them was their own house. Whoever wrote that note knows where their house was.They slowly pasted into the house and then sprinted into their rooms,looked at their door and hid behind the blankets.The abandoned house was never seen again.
