

TOP TIPS

- Transactions on the left hand side of your account is a great place to check your account activity.
- If you ordered a lunch and your child is going to be absent log on and cancel the order and the money will go back into your account (refer to cut-off times).
- If the lunch order is not correct please make sure your child lets a school staff member know.

Lunchonline has been delivering delicious lunches to children in New Zealand for over 10 years.
