

Parent survey 2017

17. The Nayland College uniform code currently states that makeup should not be 'excessive'. Is this expectation:

More Details

Not strict enough	10
About right	115
Too restrictive	12
Other	9

18. The Nayland College uniform code currently states that jewellery should not be worn, except for matching ear studs, and that any body piercing should not be obvious. Is this expectation:

More Details

Not strict enough	5
About right	108
Too restrictive	22
Other	10

19. The Nayland College uniform code currently states that hair should be of a 'natural' colour. Is this expectation:

More Details

Not strict enough	5
About right	80
Too restrictive	51
Other	10

20. Do you believe that year 13 students should be expected to wear uniform?

More Details

Yes	37
No	85
Happy with either decision	23

Staff survey

1. Do you think Nayland College students should be able to wear mufti (within dress code requirements) in year 13?

More Details

Yes	35
No	18
I don't mind either way	14

Year 11 Survey

1. Do you think Nayland College students should be able to wear mufti (within dress code requirements) in year 13?

More Details

Yes	66
No	4
I don't mind either way	4

Year 12 Survey

1. Do you think Nayland College students should be able to wear mufti (within dress code requirements) in year 13?

More Details

Yes	114
No	11
I don't mind either way	5

Year 13 Survey

1. Do you think Nayland College students should be able to wear mufti (within dress code requirements) in year 13?

More Details

● Yes	90
● No	4
● I don't mind either way	4

