

Wilford School - Ako Tahi Tatou

Wilford School Values

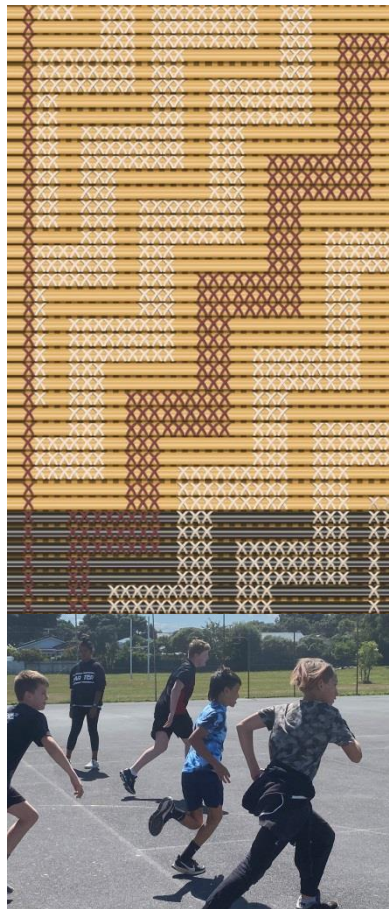

MARA means garden. We nurture all learners to grow to their fullest potential.

Te Mara

M Mana
Ā Ākonga
R Rangatiratanga
A Awhi

Wilford School Values

Guiding behaviours and attitudes for our school community.

Te Poutama

Poutama means staircase. It represents the learning journey for each tamariki supported by whānau and school.

Tinana - Physical Wellbeing
Wairua - Spiritual Well Being
Hinengaro - Mind
Whānau - Family/Community

- Waiora - understand about total health and wellbeing of spirit, mind, body, and heart, as well as environmental health
- Āhuatanga - be able to make positive lifestyle choices
- Tōna Mana Ake - be strong in their own identity
- Kaitiakitanga - be an ethical decision maker and guardian/kaitiaki of the world for the future
- Ako - be a curious, creative and critical thinking learner
- Kirimāia - be prepared to take risks, face challenges and effectively solve problems
- Tūrangawaewae - Understand the reciprocal nature of their role within whānau, hapū, iwi, community and wider society
- Manaakitanga - be compassionate, caring, empathetic and accepting of diversity

