You'll discover how to creatively interpret the written word, how to explore colour and texture in new ways to make cool and exciting artwork.

But most of all, you'll have heaps of fun!

Praise for Fifi

"I was captivated by your stories all day long. It was amazing how you kept everyone's attention, from five year olds to adults."

"I loved the way she was so relaxed and open about her own journey as an author and how her successes and failures impact on her. She really emphasised the value of trying and failing."

"Fifi's visit was fantastic. She is such an inspiring and vivacious lady!"
