Tutoring in:

Piano/Keyboard

Styles:

Classical, modern, pop, kid's music.

Seb's style of fun learning incorporates any song your child wishes to play, a catalogue of age appropriate songs, notation/sheet music, playing by ear, You-tube videos, traditional and modern teaching techniques and a general appreciation for music.

Seb has extensive experience tutoring primary and high school students. He understands younger and older children, having a 3 year old and a 10 year old of his own. His friendly, laid back style combined with a vast knowledge of music enables him to connect with and inspire children of all ages, backgrounds and skill levels.

About Seb:

Seb gained Grade 8 classical piano (ABRSM) in High School, while playing drums, guitar, bass and vocals in blues, rock and jazz bands. He has a Bachelor of Music from the University of Canterbury and a Diploma in Musical Arts from CPIT Jazz School. He is an active performing musician and has extensive experience in song writing, music theory, audio engineering and tutoring. He produces a wide range of music in his home studio, including his father-daughter kids music duo Pineapple Soup.
