IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING PERIL PRODUCTION

Dear Valued Advertisers & Community Members

Since Amuri Area School took over publishing The Peril back in 2016, we have not increased our advertising prices. During this time, we have absorbed printing and paper increases. To enable the pricing to continue at its present rates, printing will cease and The Peril will be going online commencing on 28th September 2023.

All parents of students enrolled at Amuri will automatically be added to an email distribution list along with all current and past advertisers.

If you are not a parent but would like to receive The Peril in your inbox please send an email to theperil@amuri.school.nz with WEEKLY in the subject line. Alternatively, it is available on the school website <https://hail.to/amuri-area-school/publication/LRVJ7IW> or our school Facebook page.

If you wish to opt out of the email distribution please email theperil@amuri.school.nz with OUT in the subject line.

The school would like to thank you all for your support over the years and hopefully your continued advertising.

Have you heard of the Rates Rebate?

This subsidy towards the cost of your rates (up to $750 for this rating year) can be applied for, in relation to your total household income.

Some people think a Rates Rebate is only for the more senior members of our District, but this is not the case. If you are a low income homeowner, you may be eligible. Please visit our website for all the information you need.

If you would rather speak to someone on the phone, please ring:
Amberley: 03 314 8816.
Cheviot Freephone: 03 319 8812.
Amuri & Hanmer Springs Freephone: 03 315 8400.

Or pop in to the Amberley Council Office.

Application forms are available at all service centres in Hurunui, or they can be downloaded from the DIA website, (there is a link on our website).

If you applied for a Rates Rebate last year, you have already been sent an application form for this rating year.

Prescriptions

To avoid running out of your medications, please make sure you check when they are next due and allow at least two weeks prior to that date, so that you have enough time to arrange an appointment to see the doctor and avoid disappointment.

When the surgery is very busy it may not be possible to get an appointment at short notice.

If an urgent prescription is required, a short prescription of one week may be given in lieu of an appointment with the doctor, these will incur an additional fee.

All patients must be seen by the doctor every three months for repeat medication, unless otherwise indicated and documented by a doctor in the patients notes.
