

Free

Simple ways to grow your own food

From garden to plate, you too can feed your whānau, save on your budget and enjoy the delicious taste of organic home-grown success.

New Zealand Certificate in Primary Industry Skills
- Sustainable Horticulture, Level 2

Nelson Campus | 11 March
March or July start | 6pm–8.30pm
Mondays + every first and third
Saturday, 9am–1pm

Richmond Campus | 11 March
March start only | 6pm–8.30pm
Wednesdays + every first and third
Saturday, 9am–1pm

You will cover the following three courses over six months:

- Vegetable gardening
- Soil and growing techniques
- Fruit orchard gardening

Apply now | nmit.ac.nz/horticulture

nmit
Nelson Marlborough Institute of Technology
Te Whare Wānanga o Te Taihū o Te Waka a Māui

Te Pūkenga

Dig deep and grow your skills in horticulture

If you like working outdoors, love variety, and don't want to work in an office, this programme is for you and offers skills to work outdoors while learning the feeling of accomplishment by growing things well.

New Zealand Certificate in Horticulture (General), Level 3

---

Richmond Campus | July
or apply for the full Online option

You will:

- Understand how to improve your soil
- Learn to train and prune fruit trees
- Maintain great plant health
- Manage irrigation and water
- Grow your own plants

Apply now | nmit.ac.nz/horticulture