

Create your own taniwha and describe what it looks like, what its characteristics are and what it protects.	Build a pā site. Think about gates into the pā, places your chiefs will meet, where your kai will be stored and where your waka will be anchored.	Design a pātaka to store kai. It has to be elevated off the ground, have a carved front and a ladder from the ground to the entrance.	Draw a scene on the window of a war party or warriors coming into a beach to land. The other tribe awaits the war party on the hill near their marae behind palisades.
Read about Maui. Who is he? What were his traits? What was one of the things he was famous for? Draw him and write everything you find out about him around your drawing.	Host a movie night with your whānau. Make tickets and fake money to buy some treats that you make like popcorn and an ice cream in a cone. Set up an area with comfy seats and blankets.	Create a menu for breakfast. Use at least 5 Māori kupu in your menu. Take orders for fun from your whānau.	Count to 100 in Te Reo Māori. Tahi, rua, toru, whā.....
Make a sock puppet with an old sock. Sew or stick on eyes and a mouth for the puppet. Write a script between the two puppets and practice. Show your whānau the performance.	Learn your times tables. See how fast you can recall them all. Verse your whānau members with a times tables competition.	Organise a whānau games night. What games and snacks will you need? Make an invite to the games night and use at least 5 kupu Māori.	Hold a whānau talent show. What are the criteria for a talent, what will you be judged on? Create a judges marking sheet for each entry and make a certificate for the winner.
Have some quiet time on your bed and think about three things that you are thankful for. Tell the members in your whānau what those three things are.	Put together a fashion parade. Choose the clothes you want to parade, choose songs that you can walk to and make a runway path. Strut your stuff! Don't forget to put all of your clothes back.	Find a youtube clip that teaches you how to apply basic makeup. Follow the clip and take a photo of your masterpiece.	Write a letter to an essential worker - a doctor, nurse or someone who works at the supermarket and thank them for the incredible job they are doing for all of us. Use our kura values to help you.
Create a word find puzzle that is about our kura uara. Manaakitanga, kaitiakitanga, rangatiratanga, ūkaipōtanga, puawaitanga, whanaungatanga	Wash your windows in your bedroom inside and out. If you have spare newspaper lying around use this to dry the glass. They'll come up sparkling clean!	Do your hair in a crazy way and ask a whānau member if you can do their hair in a crazy way too. Take a selfie together.	Do some exercise: 5 pushups / 5 sit ups / 5 burpees 5 Star jumps and a wall sit. Repeat x3.