Tearaway Magazine

- The Voice of NZ Youth

TEARAWAY

is created by The Mavericks,
a bunch of 13-24 year-old
Kiwi writers, photographers,
film-makers, designers,
illustrators, website wizards
and social media experts.

Tearaway is YOUTH speaking to YOUTH about the things that matter most: Study/careers, music, arts/culture, sport, news, travel, science/technology, health, advice, reviews and more.

Fresh content is uploaded daily and an e-mag is sent out once a month. We're 100% digital – and absolutely FREE!

“ I was a wide-eyed 15-year-old when I found myself sitting in the Beehive, interviewing the PM for Tearaway. Writing for the mag allowed me to meet incredible people. It fuelled my love of storytelling, and led to a career in print and TV journalism. I would never have ended up where I am, if TA didn't take a punt on me ”

– JEHAN CASINADER, TVNZ Reporter

“ I think one of the best things about Tearaway is that it gives students a platform to be involved in and even on – the mag! ”

– MASSAD, singer/songwriter

ASK THE MAVERICKS

“ Tearaway has helped me realise my passion and given me my first steps into the industry. Not only has it helped me gain confidence and experience, it's brought me so many incredible and priceless opportunities that I will never forget ”

– PATRICK CAMPBELL, 18,
Tearaway's Music Editor/Student at Auckland University of Technology

“ Tearaway has become one of the most exciting parts of my life. It's provided me with so many opportunities I could only have dreamed of before ”

– DEBORAH GRACE HADY, 16,
Tearaway Maverick/Student at Marist College
