HAWARDEN WAIKARI LIONS CLUB SPEECH COMPETITION 2022

Entries are being called for the Hawarden Waikari Lions Club speech competition.

It is open to school pupils in Years 7 to 13, including home-schooled students.

All will be competing for the McIlraith Trophies awarded to the winner in each group ages.

- Date: 24th August 2022
- Venue: Hawarden Hall
- Time: Afternoon tea around 3.30 - 4.00 for students, then the competition starts at 4.30
- Judge: Sally Mac
- Sections: Year 7 - 8 (3 minutes), Year 9 - 10 (4 minutes) and Year 11 - 13 (5 minutes).

Topics: There is no set topic, but please be mindful that the speech needs to be persuasive in nature.

As lovely as it is, a recount of a holiday is not persuasive. If you are stuck for ideas, maybe you could use one of the following:

- Climate change is a myth.
- Genetic engineering is a necessary evil.

WE HAVE A NEW PRINCIPAL!

Kia ora

We are delighted to advise you that after a rigorous and very competitive process we have appointed Matt Barlow as the next Principal of Amuri Area School. The Board and Appointment Committee had the benefit of quality input from staff and students through focus groups and spent a day with four high quality, passionate and knowledgeable applicants.

Matt is currently the Deputy Principal with responsibility for the Middle School of 450 children at Middleton Grange School in Christchurch and is excited about moving to our community with his family. He will be with us at the start of Term 4. Next week there will be an article written by Matt, introducing himself and family.
