

Fortunately/Unfortunately

My alarm clock rings and I get ready to go on the bus to the S.P.C.A with Laura. We are going there to see all of the cute animals that they have and I'm really excited!

Unfortunately the bus driver took a wrong turn.

Fortunately the bus driver found a map.

Unfortunately it was a map of Australia.

Fortunately he found someone who knew how to get to the S.P.C.A.

Unfortunately she only spoke Spanish.

Fortunately he stopped so we could get off the bus.

Unfortunately a car nearly drove into us when we were crossing the road.

Fortunately someone let us borrow two of their bikes. Unfortunately when we were riding the bikes all of the wheels fell off.

Fortunately there was a bike repair shop right next to us. Unfortunately when we took the bikes in they said they couldn't fix them.

Fortunately we just had enough money to pay for a taxi. Unfortunately the taxi was late.

Fortunately the taxi eventually got there.

Unfortunately it started raining.

Fortunately there was an umbrella inside the taxi in case we had to get out.

Unfortunately the taxi broke down.

Fortunately the driver let us use the umbrella.

Unfortunately it was really windy and cold.

Fortunately we were wearing nice warm clothes.

Unfortunately the wind blew the umbrella away with us holding it!

Fortunately we landed right next to the S.P.C.A and we went and saw the animals.

By Skye