

Fortunately / Unfortunately

My alarm clock rings and I get ready to get on the bus to go to the zoo

Me and Kaysin are so excited to get there

Unfortunately the bus driver took a wrong turn

Fortunately he had a gps and he said it was a short cut

Unfortunately it was a rocky road

Fortunately only quarter of the track was rock so he went over it

Unfortunately the end had some rocks too

Fortunately it was the same amount of rocks so he went over it

Unfortunately the bus broke down

Fortunately mechanic came and fixed the bus

Unfortunately it ran out of petrol

Fortunately the mechanic had some petrol with him and we got to the zoo

Unfortunately it was closed.
