

Young Riders 5 Synopsis

Join us for the ride as Young Riders Season 5 reaches the next level, following 5 talented showjumpers from Te Ika-a-Māui (North Island) and 5 incredible new talents and their horses from Te Waipounamu (South Island). After an epic winter all 10 of our Young Riders can't wait for the season to start, we see them training at home, some in deep snow others on greener pastures, and then competing at shows across the motu. There are some returnees ready to kick off their season in top form and newbies we haven't met before who are raring to go, and lots of horse dramas.

While the North Islanders have put in the mahi and know their stuff, the South Islanders can't be underestimated when it comes to winning. Throughout the process we explore the bond each rider has with these fabulous animals and what it is that makes each horse want to win as much as their riders do.
