

Fortunately Unfortunately

My alarm rings and I get ready to go on my bus because I am going to LA with Beyonce and Jamielee.

Unfortunately the bus driver took a wrong turn.

Fortunately the bus driver has a map.

Unfortunately the driver put down his window and the map flew out of the window.

Fortunately I had a phone

Unfortunately my phone had one percent so it died .

Fortunately the bus driver had a charger.

Unfortunately the charger did not fit it.

Fortunately we made it to our destination .
