Year 12 and Year 13 students will have study leave (no timetabled lessons) between Wednesday 3rd and Friday 12th September.

The CAAs (common assessment activities) for Numeracy, Reading and Writing are predominantly for Year 10 students in this assessment window, but there will be some Year 11, Year 12 and Year 13 students also sitting them.

Year 10 students will have study leave (no timetabled lessons) on Wednesday 3rd and Thursday 4th September. Year 10 students will only come to school for their scheduled CAA on these days. Year 9 and Year 11 students will have lessons, as normal, but will come out of their lessons if they have been scheduled to attempt one or more of their CAAs.

Year 9 to 11 students who take an NCEA Level 2 or 3 subject will study independently in the library when their Level 2 or 3 class would normally run. They are permitted study leave the morning (pd 1, 2 & 3) of any 1 pm exam or the afternoon (pd 4 & 5) prior to any 9 am exam that they are sitting.
