HANMER SPRINGS ART GALLERY EXHIBITION

Peregrination by Trish Saunders 5 March to mid-April

If you have an exciting spark of an idea and give your exhibition a name before you begin, like for example, 'Peregrination', it might turn out to be exactly that, both on and off the canvas.

Definition of Peregrination:

'A journey, especially a long or meandering one'.

Indeed.

OFFICIAL OPENING 4 March @ 6.15pm

FREE nibbles, cuppa & live music by

Jane Edmed & Gary Elford have been playing together for a few years now. Jane brings years of experience in the folk music scene, first in Wellington and latterly in Christchurch. She plays flute, tin whistle and trombone and enjoys and plays a wide range of musical genres, from Brass Band to traditional English folk songs. Gary is a poet and entertainer. He is an experienced dance caller for country dances and sings and plays with a bluegrass group. He will accompany Jane on guitar, sing a song or two, and perhaps recite some poems.

I am a Canadian born West Coast artist from Blacks Point, Reefton. Most of my art contains an element of abstraction. This time I've jumped all in.

I paint a bit, step back, reflect, paint some more, turn the work up this way and that, look at it reverse in a mirror, sometimes throw it, (just kidding) and in the end I respond to what is there. A conversation is taking place.

Balance, I find, is important as I meander on my peregrination.

My art is on display at Reefton Gallery, Reefton, Left Bank Art Gallery, Greymouth and at my home gallery in Blacks Point (by appointment). Please feel free to contact me via:
