

Fortunately Unfortunately

by Chase

My alarm clock rings and I get ready to go on the bus to the airport. We were off to watch ??? play football in Portugal - how exciting is that!

Unfortunately the bus driver took a wrong turn

Fortunately there were two ways to the airport

Unfortunately the bus broke down

Fortunately a mechanic was on his way

Unfortunately he couldn't fix it

Fortunately there was another bus

Unfortunately there were too many people

Fortunately there was one more seat at the back of the bus

Unfortunately the seat stunk

Fortunately I got to the airport

Unfortunately I was too late and missed my plane

Fortunately there was another plane to Portugal

Unfortunately I didn't have a ticket

Fortunately I remembered that I owned my own plane

Unfortunately there was no fuel in it

Fortunately there was a nearby gas station

Unfortunately I didn't have a vehicle to get there

Fortunately there was a taxi stand

Unfortunately it was too expensive

Fortunately it was close so I could walk

Unfortunately the roads were very busy

Fortunately I finally walked across it

Unfortunately I fell in a man hole

Fortunately I found an exit

Unfortunately the sewer was flooding

Fortunately I got out and was suddenly in Portugal. The end
