

Fortunately, Unfortunately

My alarm clock rings and I get ready to meet Ever on the bus to the airport.

Unfortunately the bus driver takes a wrong turn.

Fortunately he turns around.

Unfortunately we ran over an old man.

Fortunately he wasn't hurt and just shocked.

Unfortunately he was an alien and couldn't understand English. Fortunately there was a translator on the bus to translate. Unfortunately someone was chewing gum loudly in our ear. Fortunately she got off at the train station.

Unfortunately the airport was the last stop and we had to wait over an hour to get to the airport.

Fortunately we still made it to the airport in time.

Unfortunately the plane was delayed as soon as we got to the gate 😞.

Fortunately the delay got cancelled and we got on the plane safely. Unfortunately the plane food tasted like raw fish.

Fortunately I pooped it out and so did Ever.

Unfortunately there was turbulence on the plane.

Fortunately we got to our destination.

Unfortunately we got to the zoo after it closed, - oh wait did I forget to mention that Ever and I are going to the zoo in Antarctica. Fortunately we had a warm place to stay for the night called the frog hotel, it has frog bedsheets and bed frames, dont worry its just pictures of frogs not real ones.

Unfortunately penguins snuck into the hotel and put snow in our bed.

Fortunately Ever and I got it out and chucked it outside. Unfortunately penguins got mad and hit us with their flippers. Fortunately we ran away and got inside the zoo and on the plus side it was warm.

Unfortunately there were only dinosaurs and frogs there. Fortunately we got to leave early.

Unfortunately the bus was late and we had to stand out in the freezing snow.

Fortunately it was only five minutes.

Unfortunately it took ten minutes to get to the plane(yes I'm impatient).

Fortunately on the plane it was warm and I got to watch peppa pig yay.

Unfortunately it was a rough landing back.

Fortunately Ever and I got ice cream when we got back.

The end (for now hehe)
