Te Aroha tū tonu mai rā

The strong ancestral, unique and special maunga we call upon for your strength - this is reflection that Te Aroha is known for it's maunga that stands tall and strong.

Te Aroha ki uta, Te Aroha ki tai, was said by a local chief when he climbed to the top of maunga and saw the beautiful landscapes.

Ka rere, ka huri

Ki ngā wai o Waihou, ki Tī - kapakapa moana

Waihou is the awa that runs through Te Aroha to the Tīkapa Moana (Hauraki Gulf).

Traditionally these were and still are the waterways that our tūpuna gather kai from.

Tai timu tai pari

Te wehi

Te wana

Tai timu Tai Pari, refers to the forever changing times that we as teenagers encounter. Te ihi, te wehi & te wana, speaks to the type of energy that we channel and put into our lives.

Ka whati te tai
