

Do we need to protest against climate change?

Free public presentation

“The history of the protest movement in NZ”

A talk by Bruce Mahalski

Wednesday 17 July 2024 - 5.30 to 6.30 pm
DCC Library Dunningham Suite 4th Floor

Bruce Mahalski will give a presentation with plenty of photographs about the history of the protest movement in NZ with particular reference to the climate movement for Climate Liberation Aotearoa. Bruce is one of the protesters being charged with stopping a Fonterra coal train after the government had declared a climate emergency. Seven of the protesters will go to court in Dunedin on 31 July. Two of the defendants are in their 80's and most are over 50.
