

Christmas Nativity Exhibition 2025

A black silhouette of a nativity scene under a stable structure. A star is positioned above the stable. The word 'FREE' is written in red, slanted letters above the stable's roofline. The scene includes a man kneeling on the left, a woman kneeling on the right, and a baby in a manger in the center.

Locals exhibit cherished nativity sets and art for you to enjoy

Saint Stephen's chapel, 64 Park Street, Ashburton

December 3 - 10, 2025

Public drop-in 11am - 2pm daily and Thursday 5 -7pm

Groups of 6+ please book to visit during or outside the advertised public hours. Schools have priority 9-2:30, other groups 2:30pm on, including evening.

office@ashburtonanglican.co.nz

Pause a while in this beautiful Christmassy space.

Individuals and groups are very welcome at our 3rd Christmas Nativity Exhibition.

... groups can book now!
(and preferably by Nov 28)

There are at least 60 exhibits - old, new, large, small, classy, crafty and quirky. There is also a photo booth, and an all-age colouring competition.

The St Stephen's venue has easy vehicle access. The exhibition is wheelchair accessible, and there are accessible toilet facilities.

Groups of 6-20 people please book (adults after 2:30pm as school groups have priority in school hours)

We look forward to sharing this taste of Christmas with you.

Rev Indrea Alexander
Ashburton Anglican Vicar.

Church office: 03 308 5438
office@ashburtonanglican.co.nz