

Fortunately / Unfortunately

My 24hour alarm clock rings. I ran to the bus stop.
I am now on the bus with my three friends and we are going to the movies to watch the Strange Things 5 movie.

Unfortunately the bus driver took a wrong turn

Fortunately he took a short cut

Unfortunately the bus broke down

Fortunately I had my phone on my to ring a taxi

Unfortunately my phone had 0% battery

Fortunately a man had a charger for me to put a tracer on. it worked we started walking

Unfortunately we went to a dead end

Fortunately one of my friends found a short cut & it was a short cut to the movies

Fortunately we were in time for it .

The end
