

Room 4 Newsletter!

Over the last week Room 4 has been experimenting with Clay as this is part of our Art unit this term. As you can see we made snake pots as our final pieces. The students will bring these home when they have painted them. They will be able to use them to store small items in :) We also had Lesley come in and teach us some Halloween Yoga, as you can see the students really enjoyed this!