

Branch Meeting of the Anthroposophical Society

‘The Labyrinth of Life and the Role of Counselling

by Fabienne Usher & Herbert Wolpert

Monday, 1st of May, 7:30 - 9:00 pm at 19 Bristol Square, Lower Hutt

Dear Members and Friends,

We would like to invite you to our branch meeting in May.

Fabienne as a Counsellor and Herbert as a Clinical Psychologist will cover this theme in the field of psychology which is such a young discipline in social science. They intend to address the following topics:

- The mystery of incarnation and the labyrinth of life
- Counselling and the role of professional help
- The principles and importance of the therapeutic relationship
- Key concepts in psychology and their influence on counselling
- Essential tools during the counselling process
- Traumas in our time and their process of healing
- Anthroposophic perspectives and counselling

There will also be space for Questions & Answers and time for a cup of tea.

We are looking forward to seeing you then.
